

Come see the film

Tuesday, December 6, 7:00 pm
Unitarian Universalist Society of Oneonta
12 Ford Avenue, Oneonta, NY

Going local is a powerful strategy that offers hope for our fractured world. This film examines the impact of globalization on a small village, explores the downsides of globalization, and then describes the growing movement to re-create more just and sustainable communities.

Refreshments and discussion will follow the 68-minute screening.

The film is part of UUSO Thoughtful Tuesdays film series on social justice issues.