

RICHFIELD SPRINGS, N. Y., THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 7, 1939

SHARON SPRINGS GIRL KILLED NEAR COBLESKILL

Meta Vom Saal, 24, of Sharon Springs was instantly killed near Cobleskill Sunday afternoon when the Plymouth coupe she was driving skidded on the wet pavement and crashed into a tree. She was en route home to make arrangements for her marriage in two weeks to Robert Korn of Sharon Springs and was driving Korn's car when the fatality occurred. Riding with her and seriously injured was her prospective bridesmaid, Miss Adele Verrelli of Hackensack, N. J.

September 8 Otsego Farmer:

PROSPECTIVE BRIDE MEETS SUDDEN DEATH NEAR E. COBLESKILL

En route home to make arrangements for her wedding, Miss Meta Vom Saal, aged twenty-four, of Sharon Springs, a nurse in New York City, met instant death Sunday afternoon about 5:15 o'clock, two weeks from the day she was to have become a bride. Seriously injured with her was her prospective maid of honor, Miss Adele Verrelli, of Hackensack, N. J. The tragedy occurred when a car driven by Miss Vom Saal skidded during a heavy rain and struck a tree near East Cobleskill.